EX-MAYOR ADVISES CITY CONVENTION HE WILL NOT RUN

Radiogram Says 'Jimmy' Is Sacrificing Himself To Preclude Necessity of Attacking Roosevelt During Campaign.

PARTY'S CHOICE IS STERN JUDGE

McKee's Name Is Not Placed in Nomination But Mention of Him Brings Demonstration.

BY ROBERT ST. JOHN. MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Surrogate John P. O'Brien tonight was nominated for mayor of New York by the democratic city convention after it had heard a dramatic message from James J. Walker, aboard an ocean liner in mid-Atlantic, removing his name from consideration.

"I request that my name be withheld from the convention," Walker's radiogram said, "and this decision is based solely on my willingness to put the interests of the party above my personal desires."

The renomination of Walker, who resigned in the midst of outer hearings before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, was vigorously opposed by the state's chief executive, now the democratic presidential candidate and former Governor Alfred E. Smith.

Friend of Al Smith. "Early this afternoon it was authoritatively stated in democratic circles that Walker's name would not be offered to the convention. Walker's radiogram came to John P. O'Brien, a Tammany leader, after this was made known. O'Brien is a personal friend of Smith."

Earlier in the week, Smith and Roosevelt had won a victory over Curry when he capitulated after opposing the nomination of the present lieutenant governor, Herbert H. Lehman, for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The exchange of radiograms between Walker and Curry, revealed that the Tammany chief and John H. McCooey, Brooklyn leader, had offered Walker the mayoralty nomination in the face of Smith-Roosevelt opposition.

"I know the people of my native city share your confidence, because my 23 years in public life does not record a single instance of disloyalty to my constituents," said Walker's message, which brought applause from the more than 20,000 delegates.

"This record was proved after a searching investigation which amounted to an inquisition. "My love for New York city is universal and I have a justifiable pride in my six and a half years of administration as its mayor. That administration was the most constructive in the city's history."

Killed in Crash

R. J. DAVIDSON, 55, KILLED IN WRECK

Two Others Lose Lives in Auto Accidents on State Highways.

R. J. Davidson, 55, for many years a prominent figure in state politics, and two Tennessee men lost their lives in automobile accidents which occurred at widely separated points on Georgia highways in the early hours of Thursday morning.

Davidson was killed when the car driven by Ralph C. Metts, advertising manager of The Statesman Publishing Company, of Atlanta, in which Davidson was riding, skidded and went into a ditch in the outskirts of Wrensville. Davidson was almost instantly killed when he was thrown through the windshield and was cut and bruised.

The two-man crew of an interstate truck operating between Savannah and Chattanooga was burned to death near Sandersville early Thursday morning when their vehicle, which carried as part of its equipment a drum of gasoline, crashed into a bridge abutment near that place. The gasoline exploded, drenching the clothing of both.

Mistrial Declared in Trial of Curtis

Hopelessly deadlocked after deliberating since dark Wednesday afternoon the jury sitting in judgment of Howard Curtis, charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Annette Bryant on June 25, announced shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday that they could reach no decision and the case was declared a mistrial by Judge James R. Hutcheson.

It was stated that the case will again be placed on the calendar for hearing in superior court, possibly within the next three weeks. The defense has based its fight on a plea of partial insanity, while Curtis himself maintained that he did not shoot the girl but that she committed suicide as the result of a suicide pact with him. The state of Georgia charged that the married barber slew his sweetheart in a fit of jealousy.

The jury was recharged by Judge Hutcheson Thursday morning, ruling out any references to the defendant's character. When he again asked the jury during the afternoon if they desired another rechange they stated through their foreman that they did not but were only deadlocked as to the verdict. It was not indicated how the hearing in superior court, possibly at 10 minutes past 5 o'clock after the jury had had the case under consideration for approximately 24 hours.

According to the opinion of many contestants, this game is the most fascinating and intriguing that has ever been offered by the Lucky Star Editor that thousands of letters and coupons have already been received.

According to James T. Causey, Lucky Star Editor, one of the most difficult tasks of the personnel of his department is that of impressing contestants with the simplicity and the ease with which the letters can be formed.

TALMADGE BACKS THREE CANDIDATES TO HEAD ASSEMBLY

Will Indorse M'Whorter for Senate Presidency, Rivers for Speaker, Eckford for Pro Tem.

BY R. E. POWELL. Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge will back Hamilton McWhorter, of Oglethorpe county, for president of the next senate, former Senator E. D. Rivers, of Lakeland, for speaker of the next house and George A. Eckford, of Fulton, for speaker pro tem.

Both McWhorter and Eckford were ardent supporters of Talmadge in his gubernatorial campaign. Rivers, editing a weekly newspaper and faced with opposition as a candidate for the legislature, was not as active for Talmadge as some other supporters but he has the next chief executive's ok.

Talmadge has said, on several occasions, that he is not at all inclined to dictate to the general assembly but members of his board of strategy said Thursday that it was "only natural" he would support men who had backed him and who were in sympathy with his program. Rivers is counted "extremely friendly" to the Talmadge policies as outlined in his campaign.

It was considered probable that the backing of the Talmadge administration will take a definite form at the first meeting of the new state committee, which will meet next week. Hugh Howell, new party chief, said he would announce the members of the new executive committee from the state at large within the next few days and issue the call. Miss Eleanor

COUNTY ASSUMES U. S. LOAN BURDEN

Assuming full responsibility for the $315,000 federal loan for emergency relief, and relieving the city of any moral obligation as to reimbursement, the county commissioners at a special meeting Thursday afternoon voted to handle the funds through the county treasury and to sign the contract with the state this morning so that the federal installment of the money may be turned over to the county authorities at once.

When application was made for the loan it was agreed with the city that the municipality would assume half of the obligation, the majority of the funds are to be spent for relief in the city. However, W. K. Meadow, assistant auditor-general, acting for Governor Russell, through whom the loan was drawn, appeared before the board at a special meeting Thursday and suggested that it would facilitate the handling of the funds if they are spent directly to the county and the county assume the obligation.

At the same time, speaking for the governor, Meadow pointed out that the federal funds are to continue to be given to the county at monthly intervals that the specifications set down by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation must be met. These are that the money must be loaned in monthly increments to the county, supplementary to popular subscription, meaning that private individuals must continue to contribute to the Community Chest.

The borrowed funds are to be placed in the county treasury and will be drawn on order of the special relief committee. The drafts must be signed by three members of the committee. W. E. Mitchell as chairman; Dr. W. L. Gilbert as the county member, and Ed Adams as the city member. The money will be obtained today when the contract is signed with the state by the county officials and a plan of how the money is to be spent is submitted to the governor by the commissioners for the special relief committee.

This list, while containing a great many words that cannot be formed from the letters in the star, will contain every word that will be allowed by the judges in this game. In this way the fortunate owner of a dictionary has no advantage over the person who either does not own a dictionary or cannot afford to buy one. As has been pointed out by the Lucky Star Editor, everyone will have a chance to win a prize in this game. The requirements are the same for everyone and there are no tricks to solving of the star. ## Roosevelt Says He's Pleased That Hoover Agrees With Him

Democratic Nominee Sees Iowa Speech of Opponent as Indirect Admission of Republican Errors.

Text of Roosevelt's Speech in Page 12.

BY W. B. RAGSDALE. ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Governor Roosevelt today declared he was "happy" that President Hoover in his Des Moines speech "agrees with me" upon the necessity of "restoring prosperity to our agricultural interests, our cattle interests, our mining interests, as an essential adjunct to the duty and responsibility of government toward economic life."

The democratic nominee said: "We have had an excellent example recently of belated promises addressed specifically to a group in the hope that with some new temporary expedient, suggested a month before election, the minds of farmers may be turned away from the grim fact of a consistently unfriendly attitude on the part of the administration over many years."

"This type of campaigning, which might be called a 'pork barrel' campaign, is not my notion of what the country needs at a time like this."

The New York governor spoke of the various plans he had outlined during his recent cross-country tour and said that he had "described the entire compass of my policy as a 'concert of interests'—north, south, east and west—agriculture, industry, mining, commerce and finance."

He said "reckless statements from the nominee, talking into a microphone in his private office in the state capital, described his own program as a 'new deal' which he said 'is, in plain English, for a changed concept of the duty and responsibility of government toward economic life.'"

Mr. Roosevelt returned to his state-house office today for the first time since he left it on September 12 to begin his western campaign swing, which in three weeks carried him into 20 states.

Both McWhorter and Eckford were ardent supporters of Talmadge in his gubernatorial campaign. Rivers, editing a weekly newspaper and faced with opposition as a candidate for the legislature, was not as active for Talmadge as some other supporters but he has the next chief executive's ok.

Talmadge has said, on several occasions, that he is not at all inclined to dictate to the general assembly but members of his board of strategy said Thursday that it was "only natural" he would support men who had backed him and who were in sympathy with his program. ## CONVICTS ACCUSE FLORIDA GUARDS OF INTENT TO SLAY

Quote Accused Prison Officials as Saying They Would Enjoy Spectacle of Mailfert Death.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Word pictures of horrible punishment were painted from the witness chair by three convicts, clad in stripes, as they described today the sweat box death of Arthur Mailfert, New Jersey youth, for whose slaying two former guards are on trial.

While a courtroom crowd leaned tensely forward, men who served with Mailfert at Sunbeam prison camp where the youth died, accused Solomon Higginbotham and George W. Courson, the defendants, with having openly expressed desire for Mailfert's death.

William Roberts, serving 45 years for robbery, said he heard Higginbotham say he "would rather kill Mailfert than eat."

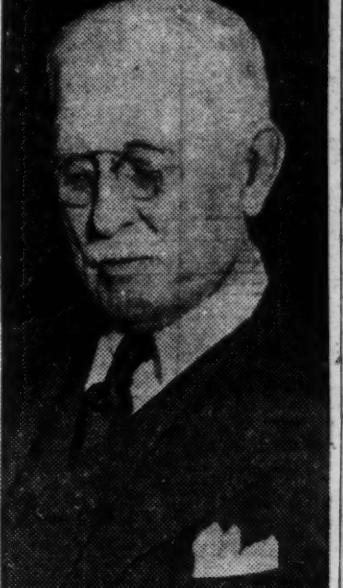

When Mailfert was placed in the sweat box, a heavy chain around his neck and stocks on his feet, after he had attempted escape, Roberts said Courson declared he would keep the youth in the box "until Christmas—if he ain't dead."

Cleo Drew, serving his third prison term, told the jury that Courson placed around Mailfert's neck the chain which the state charges strangled the prisoner.

After Mailfert made his escape, Drew said, he was taken to the camp, strapped to his shoulders by the neck and arms.

SAMUEL INSULL

UNCLE REMUS SUIT DISMISSAL DENIED

Ruling as valid the copyright of Uncle Remus characters, held by Mrs. Esther LaRose Harris, Judge E. Marvin Underwood in federal district court Thursday declared that Mrs. Harris has a cause of action against the Coca-Cola Company, and overruled a motion filed by the defendant to dismiss her suit against the company for $10,000,000 damages.

The suit in question is one filed against the Coca-Cola Company by Mrs. Harris, widow of Joel Chandler Harris, for alleged infringement of a copyright she holds on Uncle Remus characters created by the late Georgia writer in his book, "Uncle Remus, His Songs and His Sayings." She alleges that sketches by A. E. Frost, used in this book, were copied by the defendant company and used in advertising their soft drink.

In overruling the motion to dismiss the case, Judge Underwood in effect declares that the case must be heard in court. It was stated in the clerk's office of the court that it probably will come up early in January.

When asked for comment on the decision, the Coca-Cola Company stated: "The decision does not touch the basic facts of the case, which are many, as stated by the court, left for later determination."

Suit Filed June 19. The suit was filed June 19, of last year, and the motion for dismissal was argued May 14, 1932. In the motion Complications in Extradition Seen If Elder of Financiers Still Is British Citizen.

BARRIE, Ont., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Martin J. Insull, wanted in Chicago to answer to an indictment for grand larceny and embezzlement in connection with the collapse of the Insull utilities interests, surrendered tonight to Ontario provincial police.

He gave himself up to Inspector J. H. Putnam, who was armed with a warrant for his arrest obtained a few hours earlier from Justice W. A. Logie, of the Ontario supreme court, in Toronto, by John Hampton, Insull's state attorney for Cook county, Illinois.

Jailed for Night. Judge Dudley Holmes, senior judge of Simcoe county, to whom home Inspector Putnam took Mr. Insull, remanded the prisoner in custody until 11:30 a. m., October 14.

Judge Holmes said that although J. R. Boys, the former Chicagoan's counsel, was considering the matter of bail, no application had been made and Mr. Insull would remain in jail overnight.

So to jail he went. He was assigned to a small whitewashed cell in which there was a narrow cot, and no running water.

Mrs. Insull had come to Barrie from Orlinda, where he has been living in boarding houses for several months, shortly after Mr. Hampton arrived at provincial police headquarters with the warrant.

Long Extradition Battle. The arrest of the former utilities magnate opened the way for extradition proceedings, which may require several weeks. Earlier in the day he had refused to return voluntarily to stand trial.

Thousands Attend Opening Of New Grand Theater Here

BY WILLIAM KEY. A new Grand theater was born in Atlanta Thursday night, and its advent was greeted by one of the most representative audiences ever to attend a premiere in this city.

Like its predecessor, the old DeGue Grand opera house, which first opened its doors on the night of February 10, 1893, the new theater is symbolic of the great achievement in the imagination of the times—a majestic dream of modernism come true. It marks not only the rebirth of one of Atlanta's oldest institutions but the resumption of Marcus Loew's show in this city, the chief center of which in 17 years has been the Grand.

Says He Killed Negro in Effort To Protect His Home.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Stanley A. Puryear told a jury in criminal court today that he killed the negro for whose death he is on trial because the negro hacked his wife and daughter to death with an ax.

"That negro broke into my home," he testified. "He attacked my wife and baby. I killed him to protect my home."

The state charges that Puryear, 38, a used car dealer, killed Will Jamison, negro, the morning of May 2, after brutally murdering his own wife and daughter. Puryear is accused of having killed the negro to divert suspicion from himself. He also is under indictment for the slaying of the wife and daughter.

Asked about his relationship with Mary "Sunshine" Walker, a vivacious young woman state witnesses have testified was his constant companion, Puryear said she was merely a friend of his family.

"Yes, I know Sunshine Walker," he said. "My wife knew her. She was not only my friend but the friend of all my family."

ONLY MAJOR PARTIES ON FLORIDA BALLOT

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 6.—(AP)—The supreme court today handed down a decision which Attorney-General Landis said limits the November general election ballot to the printed names of nominees of the democratic and republican parties.

He said the decision would supersede his ruling of yesterday that the communist, prohibition and liberty parties in Florida should have their candidates' names printed on the ballots.

In effect, the court held that the Florida election laws, as amended in 1931, entitle only nominees of political parties, as recognized by law, to have their names printed on the general election ballot and that at this time only the democratic and republican parties are so recognized.

How the Community Chest acts as agent for the charitably inclined individual is told by Mrs. Sam Levy, honorary president of the Atlanta Chapter of Hadassah, in an interview indorsing the forthcoming campaign for funds.

"The argument is made sometimes that the method of the Community Chest is too impersonal, and that the giver would rather perform this duty himself," Mrs. Levy said.

"When it is considered, however, that the Chest has trained workers for this sort of thing who can make a dollar go farther and be better applied than any individual not familiar with relief work, the advantage of the Chest method soon is realized.

"Relief work is no experiment with this organization, no blind effort to get results. Its work is thoroughly systematized, its requirements are known beforehand.

"The giver knows that his contribution will go where it is merited, and where it will give the greatest return in good."

INTANGIBLE TAX PLAN IS UPHOLD BY BEAMAN

Declaring that in other states a tax on intangible property had greatly increased tax revenues, and that Georgia was backward in respect of tax methods, Henry A. Beaman, Atlanta attorney, addressed the members of the City Club at their luncheon at the Wineoff hotel on Thursday on the intangibles amendment. At the conclusion of his talk he answered questions by members of the club. It was decided to make the next luncheon meeting a forum discussion of the same subject.

The state of Minnesota and the city of Baltimore were cited by Mr. Beaman as examples of places which had made a success of the intangible tax plan. These sections, he said, were collecting three times as much in intangibles taxes than they were in the late nineties, while Georgia was at present collecting less.

He said that the caption of the proposed Georgia measure was misleading and was not all necessary.

HUBBY'S WEAKNESS

Mrs. Hall advises all wives to give husbands LOG CABIN SYRUP with hot cakes on frosty mornings!

"I'll never forget the first dish that my Jack actually praised," said Mrs. R. K. Hall. "That was an event!"

"It was a batch of hot cakes... covered with rich, golden Log Cabin Syrup. And Jack's exact words were as follows: 'Sweetheart, these are the lightest, most delicious pancakes I have ever tasted.' Welcome words!"

"Now I must confess! Log Cabin really deserves the credit. Its delicate, maple taste gives cakes such extra flavor. And it makes them seem so light and tender, too, I know!"

THIS LOG CABIN SYRUP ACTUALLY MAKES PANCAKES SEEM SO MUCH LIGHTER!

THAT'S right, Mrs. Hall! And this is the reason. Log Cabin Syrup has just the right body to really saturate pancakes with delicious maple flavor. And as a result the cakes simply fall apart at the touch of a fork. Try it for yourself—and see!

To achieve this consistency and flavor, we use three distinct kinds of sugar in making Log Cabin. Delicious Vermont and Canadian maple to give that delicate, mellow maple flavor. Then just the right amount of fine cane sugar to give that smooth, penetrating consistency that makes pancakes served with Log Cabin seem so amazingly light and tender.

Give your husband hot cakes and Log Cabin Syrup for breakfast tomorrow! And you'll want to use it, too, on muffins and other hot breads, just as you do on pancakes and waffles. Log Cabin Syrup is a product of General Foods.

New York Life Head Dies of Heart Disease

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Darwin P. Kingsley, chairman of the board of the New York Life Insurance Company, died at his home here tonight after a long illness of heart disease. He was born at Alburg, Vt., May 5, 1857.

Kingsley, who had been ill for two years, took a turn for the worse last June while at his summer home in Southampton, Long Island. Only recently was he sufficiently strong to permit his return to New York.

WOMAN LOSES ACTION AGAINST 'CHANGE HEAD'

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—On the ground that Mrs. Harriet J. Raldiris failed to prove her case, Supreme Court Justice Phoenix Ingraham today dismissed her action for $1,250,000 charging E. H. Simmons, former president of the New York Stock Exchange, with fraudulently representing that all its members were investigated as to character and financial stability.

'SHARE-THE-WORK' MOVEMENT GROWS

Local Committees Organizing Prior to General Meeting Monday.

Separate meetings of the local committees for different industries are being held prior to the general committee meeting of the share-the-work movement Monday, October 10, Ivan Allen, chairman of the Atlanta committee, stated Thursday.

"The share-the-work movement is not primarily a five-day week movement, nor a 30-hour week movement, nor a 6-hour day movement, although it includes all of these methods of spreading existing work among as many workers as possible," Mr. Allen said.

"It is a nation-wide attack on the problem of unemployment, headed by Walter Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The banking and industrial committees of each federal reserve district, the state chairmen, the local chairmen and finally the vice chairmen for various industries in each city, form a vast organization of the nation's business leaders. Under their direction, the judicious application of the job-sharing plan to every type of business employing 20 or more workers will serve to reduce the ranks of the unemployed and lessen the burden on the community during the coming winter."

2D BAPTIST CHURCH FAVORS MERGER PLAN

With one congregation on record as favoring a merger and representatives of the other predicting similar action next week, a vast new church seems assured for Atlanta, to be known as the Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist church. The congregation of the Second Baptist approved the merger Wednesday night by a vote of 87 to 20 after it was proposed by Colonel Frederic J. Paxon, a lay leader of the Second church.

Horace Collingsworth, chairman of the board of deacons of the Ponce de Leon church, said he felt confident that his congregation would approve the merger at a meeting to be held Wednesday night. Both the board of deacons and the pastor, Dr. Luther Rice Christie, have approved the combine, he said.

Under the tentative plan of merger, Dr. Ryland Knight, pastor of the Second church, will become pastor of the combined congregation. As soon as the merger is approved by the Ponce de Leon church, committees of both churches will work out details of merger.

Both churches long have been leaders in Atlanta's religious life. The Second church was founded in 1890 and has a membership of 865, while the Ponce de Leon church was established in 1904. Both have been served by notable ministers and responsible for their share in the up-building of Atlanta.

British Labor Asks Debt Cancellation

LEICESTER, England, Oct. 6.—(UP)—Immediate negotiations for the cancellation of all war debts and reparations are demanded in a resolution adopted today by the labor party, holding its annual conference. The resolution stipulates that Great Britain shall not pay or receive another single dollar in reparations or war debts.

Thomas Says Public Should Own Utilities

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Outright public ownership of public utilities and socialized banking were advocated here tonight by Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for president, in a campaign address. Regulation of public utilities, he declared, "has proved its inadequacy in the case of railroads." Socialized banking, he described as "virtually necessary."

Soviet Recalls Envoy at London

MOSCOW, Oct. 6.—(AP)—G. Y. Sokolnikov, ambassador to Great Britain since 1929, has been recalled to Moscow, it was officially announced tonight, bearing out rumors which have been current for some time that he was returning to take up important work. The announcement said merely that he was leaving the London embassy at his own request, but there was no indication of the assignment which awaits him here. In 1924 when he was commissar of finance he was credited with stabilization of the ruble, and that fact has aroused speculation that his return at this time may have something to do with the fiscal problem. The purchasing power of the ruble has dropped sharply in the past few months. I. M. Maisky, minister to Finland, will go to the London post.

2 cups water 1 1/2 to 2 cups sugar

Boil sugar and water together 5 minutes; add cranberries and boil without stirring (5 minutes is usually sufficient) until all the skins pop open. Remove from the fire when the popping stops and allow the sauce to remain in vessel undisturbed until cool. OPELIKA, Ala., Oct. 6.—(P)—Judge Samuel L. Brewer, 67, for 25 years judge of the fifth judicial circuit of Alabama, died suddenly at his home here today, apparently the victim of a heart attack.

Before becoming judge of the fifth circuit, Judge Brewer served two terms as its solicitor. At one time he taught school in Mobile and after turning to law became widely known in legal circles throughout the state. Funeral services will be held at Judge Brewer's old home at Tuskegee Saturday.

DEKALB COUNTY MAN STABBED IN SCUFFLE

Stab wounds in the back, arms and head were suffered Thursday by J. M. Farmer, 49, of route 1, Decatur, as the result of an argument with another man at a curb market near the city auditorium.

While physicians at Grady hospital were repairing Farmer's hurts, police began a search for the assailant, armed with the identity of the alleged attacker, it was said. Farmer was stabbed during a scuffle, it was said. At the hospital, it was said that Farmer probably will recover.

Every Casualty Contingency Met in Constitution's Policy

"Honeymoon couple badly hurt in crash."

"Accidents fatal to 22 in the south over the week-end."

The above headlines appeared in The Constitution in Monday's issue—just the same old story of the ever-growing wave of accidents which is sweeping the country.

Have you heeded the persistent warnings to take precautions against this great common menace? Are you protected against an abrupt halt in income in event you should be injured in an accident today? Is the future of your wife and children assured if you should be killed when you least expect death?

You may be standing on the brink of the grave now. Insure yourself now—today!

The Constitution offers you the famous travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago. This insurance is offered to subscribers and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 65 on the one subscription going into that home at the small registration fee of $1 each per policy per year.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths resulting from certain specified accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from the accidents set forth in the policy. All this for only $1 registration fee—just about 2 cents a week.

The policy is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill. The reliability of this concern is proved by the fact that already more than $150,000 in cash has been paid on claims to Constitution policyholders.

This insurance is offered to old and new subscribers alike. One who is now taking the daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for it through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly, or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Paid-in-advance mail subscribers can also have this insurance by paying the small registration fee of $1 in addition to the subscription price.

Those living in Atlanta and suburbs finding it inconvenient to pay the $1 registration fee in advance can pay 20 cents registration fee with the application and 20 cents for five consecutive weeks thereafter in full to the subscription price.

In sending application for insurance the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and if beneficiary is desired the full Christian name of the beneficiary must be given and relationship to the insured.

REPORT ON ACCIDENTS REITERATED BY COOK

Replying to a denial made Thursday by Police Chief T. O. Sturdivant that Atlanta had the worst accident record proportionate to its population of any large American city, Charlie Cook, secretary of Dixie Associated Motorists, said that while his first statement was not intended as a reflection on the vigilance of officers, revised figures do show that Atlanta leads other cities in proportionate fatal traffic accidents.

The motorist association had reported 64 deaths and 1,370 persons injured in 2,984 accidents for the first eight months of 1932. Chief Sturdivant, in a talk before the day watch Thursday, denied the figures of the motorist club and said there were 1,551 accidents in the city limits of Atlanta during the period referred to, which resulted in death to 37 persons and injury to 746.

The chief pointed out that Mr. Cook had included in his reports accidents which occurred in suburban cities, or in the area known as Greater Atlanta.

Mr. Cook said that while it was true that his figures covered accidents in the Greater Atlanta area, still they were "approximately accurate."

Mr. Cook said further that "using the chief's own figure of 37 killed in accidents in Atlanta proper, we find that 12.5 persons for every 100,000 population were fatally injured during the period in question, which percentage is only slightly below the record of Portland, Akron and Fort Worth."

He added that his figures were not given out to reflect upon the efficiency of the Atlanta police department.

Dominant Textile Position Achieved by South's Mills

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—(P)—The Manufacturers Record says the south has reached such a dominant position in the textile field that during the year which closed July 31 southern mills consumed more than 4,035,000 bales of cotton of a total consumption by all American mills of 4,968,000 bales.

And compared with 1931, the south showed a decrease of only 2 per cent in consumption while there was a decline in consumption in mills outside the south of 25 per cent.

Southern textile mills have been making better production records during the depression than other principal industries of the nation, the Manufacturers Record says. The cotton manufacturing rate of operation has never been below 50 per cent and at times has been more than 80 per cent of capacity on a single shift basis.

The Record says the south's textile supremacy has been augmented by the establishment of some of the largest mills in the industry even during the three years of depression.

Approximately 1,750 individual textile plants in the world. Expansion down its life for others. Our Master said, "I came not to be ministered unto but to minister and to give my life a ransom for many." His life was consecrated completely to the will of God. The Christian desires above all else that his own will shall be under the influence of the will of Christ. Extraordinary times, and we have them, demand extraordinary consecration. It is time for me to ask myself—Is there anything distinctive about my Christianity? Does my home, my church membership, my conduct in society, testify to my consecration unto God, for Christ's sake? Who said, "For their sakes I sanctify myself?"

Prayer: Our Father in heaven, though Thou art exalted far above all, Thou hast promised to dwell with those of pure and humble hearts. If any idol within us keeps Thee out, we would cast it from its place. It is for Thee and Thee alone that we open our heart, throwing wide the door. Thou hast made us in Thine image. If we have marred that image, restore it. If we have played the prodigal's part, may this be the day when, through eyes made clear by the shedding of penitent tears, we may see the Father's smile and hear Him say, "Rejoice with me. This my son was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found." Here and now we would dedicate our hearts, by a fuller consecration than we have ever known, to be all Thine own. Amen.

"CONSECRATION" IS TODAY'S TOPIC OF PRAYER WEEK

Today, the sixth to be observed by Protestant churches throughout the United States as part of "Penitence and Prayer Week" will be devoted in Atlanta churches to a theme of "consecration," as suggested by the national committee which is sponsoring the period. The week began last Sunday and will be concluded Saturday.

Today's suggested program follows:

Consecration.

Daily text: "I beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your spiritual service. And be not fashioned according to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Rom. 12:1-2.

Scripture references: 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Gal. 6:10-20; Phil. 3:7-14; Col. 3:1-17; 2 Tim. 4:1-8.

Meditation: Love for Christ determines the measure of our consecration to Him. Love may always be known by its expenditures, its self-sacrifices. Love is always laying

Some Scrumptious New Pies.

The style in pies changes with the season. Soon the pumpkin variety will predominate, but until the second week in October there is a stretch between the newer and modern varieties.

The tendency in pie styles, outside of these seasonal ones recurring each year, is toward the one-crust variety, with fillings unusual and original. Each hostess tries her best to produce individual ones for the family and for parties.

Many of these new pies first appear on the menu of a rooming house or restaurant. For instance, cream pie appears on the menu of a metropolitan hotel in an entirely new and different form. Very rich, the filling is rolled thin, thinner than usual, and cut in rounds or discs with the large cutter usually used for baking pound biscuits. These rounds of pastry are baked, after pricking to prevent puffing, to a delicate brown in a hot oven. There should be at least four of these thin discs for each individual pie portion.

A regulation cream filling is then made by cooking together one pint milk, one and a half tablespoons flour

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of bile daily into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't take for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Remember a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Do you blame common winter ills on outside causes like WET FEET DRAFTS CHILLING WINDS OVERHEATED ROOMS

when your own physical condition may be at fault...

No matter how cautious you are about drafts, sloppy weather, raw winds, and overheated rooms, you may still be susceptible to ills this winter if your resistance is low!

In a state of depleted vitality, germs are likely to get the best of you, regardless of special precautions against exposure you may take.

Therefore, as a defense against usual winter ills, build good resistance! Wet, cold weather, stuffy rooms are unlikely to bother you so much when your general condition is good.

A new concentrate of cod-liver oil vitamins, Squibb Adex Tablets-10D, provide an abundance of the important factor which helps to increase resistance and physical stamina—Vitamin A.

Squibb Adex are also an exceptionally rich source of Vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin. Each tablet supplies as much Vitamin A and D as one-half teaspoonful of Squibb Cod-Liver Oil with Viosterol-10D.

Take Adex regularly every day. Chocolate coated, easy to swallow. At any good drug store.

How To End Terrible Agony Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel.

That is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give permanent relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause—and not one minute before. External treatments can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts.

HEM-ROID tablets have an almost unbelievable record of success. So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Jacobs' Drug Stores and druggists everywhere invite every sufferer to try HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if it does not end their case!—(adv.)

lombian-grown coffees have developed their well-known rich flavors.

With us, bananas may be used for salads, for desserts, for breakfast food, or cooked at a vegetable.

A few slices of banana in the morning's orange juice will please the family, or a few slices in the children's gelatin will add much to the flavor. Here is a sherbet which will delight a children's party:

A Two-Two Fruit Ice.

Two oranges, 2 lemons, 2 bananas, 2 cups of water, 2 cups of sugar.

Boil sugar and water together for five minutes. When cool add strained bananas and fruit juices. Freeze.

There are many delicious desserts containing bananas. Here are two favorites:

Banana Cream Pie.

One and a half cups scalded milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch, yolks of 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, pinch of salt.

Mix sugar and cornstarch, add to well-beaten eggs. Add milk, salt and butter, and cook in a double boiler until thick. When slightly cooled, add vanilla. Put a layer of custard into a pie shell, previously baked, then a layer of thinly sliced bananas, another layer of custard and more sliced bananas. Bake in water bath.

Banana Delight.
To 1 1/2 pint of cream, whipped stiff, add 1 teaspoon powdered sugar, 1-4 teaspoon vanilla and one tablespoon of orange juice. Fold into this one cup of marshmallows, cut into quarters 1-4 cup of chopped nuts, and 2 cups of sliced bananas. Pile the mixture into tall sherbet glasses and top each one with a slice of banana.

Some days, lunch time seems to come before the morning's work is done. If you want a quick, easy thing in a jiffy, try this next recipe. It is also fine for a Sunday supper.

Caramel Pecan Pie.

Six bananas, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 12 slices of bacon.

Put bananas and brush them over with the lemon juice. Sauté in the butter until golden brown on all sides. Remove to a platter, and in the same frying pan cook the bacon. Arrange the bacon around the bananas. Serve at once.

Instead of potatoes, serve baked bananas, sometimes with meat patties, or with chops.

Temperatures To Rise Here Today; Low of 42 Recorded Thursday

Fair, warmer weather, with temperatures expected to rise as high as 68 degrees, is the forecast for Atlanta and vicinity today and tonight, following the cold spell of Wednesday night and early Thursday morning.

Acting Forecaster Scott reported the following low temperatures of Thursday as follows:

Atlanta 42; Griffin 39; Monticello 44; Mcon 46; Newnan 42; Rome 41; Tallapoosa 40; Toocosa 43; West Point 42; Augusta 50; Savannah 52; Mobile 44; Apalachicola 48; Shreveport 42; Little Rock 38; Louisville 38; Chattanooga 46; Memphis 42; New Orleans 50; Birmingham 42; Asheville 42.

Frost was reported in sections of the Mississippi and lower Ohio valleys, and according to Scott, is considered likely in north Georgia today, especially in exposed places.

"It isn't hog-killing weather yet in Georgia," Scott said, "because the cold weather isn't going to last long enough. We are forecasting rising temperatures for tomorrow, but there likely will be some frost in north Georgia early Friday morning. No serious damage to crops is expected, however, because they are pretty well along."

—when you require a tonic

...when you feel "tired out" ... "all run-down" ... "sluggish" ... "listless" ... "no appetite" — it is then time to pause and consider what may be the cause of this condition. If you suspect an organic or functional trouble of a serious nature consult a physician at once.

But if your vital organs are sound and you have thru overwork, worry, unbalanced diet, working conditions, "bad air," lack of proper exercise, unconsciously reduced your vitality and resistance, then restore your vital red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin content so that your blood and tissues may have the oxygen to purify and strengthen your body.

For decades S.S.S. has been the preferred tonic for restoring hemoglobin to the red-cells of the blood. Start to rebuild now. You will surprise yourself. S.S.S. is on sale at all drug stores in two convenient sizes—the larger is more economical and is sufficient for a two weeks' treatment.

Lay the slant-head GEM Micromatic against the cheek and shave with a full, free stroke.

This presents the rigid blade at a right angle (which is the correct angle) tightens the face, and brings the stubble at skin level to the razor edge. That's how the barber does it.

And that's how "the little barber in a box" (to which we have just added $660,000 worth of exclusive features) gets in its fine work.

Mussolini Shoots Well But Is Fined Regardless

ROME, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini smilingly paid a fine of five lire (about 26 cents) today after he had made an almost perfect score at the national rifle tournament.

He fired a military rifle 24 times, each shot hitting the target and 12 clipping the bullseye.

But as he turned from firing he failed to open the breech block of the rifle and Secretary Battistoni said:

"I am sorry, your excellency, but you are fined five lire."

Mayor Key Invites Veterans to City

Mayor James L. Key Thursday extended a double invitation to Georgia Confederate veterans to meet in Atlanta this year.

Key's action was taken after he had been advised of statements of General William Harden, of Savannah, that the veterans had not had an invitation.

The Atlanta mayor told General Harden "the latching of this city is in ways on the outside for United Confederate Veterans, and it will be a source of deep regret if we should fail to secure this convention this year."

Putts said that this sum compared with an estimated total budget for the present year of 1,950,000,000 yen.

LEDFOUR, HAMILTON ISSUE STATEMENTS

Expressing his appreciation of the consideration of the democratic state convention Wednesday, George B. Hamilton Friday issued a statement announcing his candidacy for state treasurer in 1934. Treasurer of my thousands of friends throughout Georgia will always remain a bright spot in my life, and I cannot find words to amply express the heartfelt appreciation I have for their support.

Hamilton said: "The convention of the democratic party of Georgia spoke and declared Mr. Ledford to be the nominee for the office of state treasurer and I hasten to congratulate him and tender to him my whole-hearted support. "I waged a fight for what I believed was right and have no regrets and no cause for regret. The loyalty of my thousands of friends throughout Georgia will always remain a bright spot in my life, and I cannot find words to amply express the heartfelt appreciation I have for their support."

"I am announcing at this time my candidacy for the office of state treasurer two years hence. I am confident that I will be elected by such a large majority that I cannot lose it."

"I wish to thank the delegates to the state convention for their courteous consideration of my nomination and to pledge to the new administration my entire loyalty and support."

Hamilton said: "I wish to thank every man and woman in Georgia who gave me their loyal support in my race for state treasurer in the recent primary which culminated in my being declared the nominee for state treasurer for the ensuing term."

"I shall endeavor in the future, as I have in the past, to maintain the confidence and esteem of my fellow citizens by rendering the very best service I can in the office entrusted to me."

U. S. POULTRY BODY INSTALLS OFFICERS; TO ADJOURN TODAY

Moving ahead of schedule with none of the feature addresses omitted, the fifty-seventh annual convention of the American Poultry Association was prepared for an early adjournment this morning, following the final meeting of the board of directors at the Piedmont hotel, according to H. A. Nourse, president. New officers were installed and the convention practically all business finished, he said.

The business session Thursday continued with talks by nationally prominent fanciers and judges, including Dr. B. E. Kaupp, of Spartanburg, S. C.; A. F. Gannon, of the University of Georgia; Clyde Ingram, of Louisiana State University; George Robertson, of Ottawa, Canada; and Harvey C. Wood, of Chicago. Thursday afternoon the delegates planned the work for the coming year and heard committee reports.

As many photographs as can be made of the fall of the Leonides will be made for submission to the National Meteor Society.

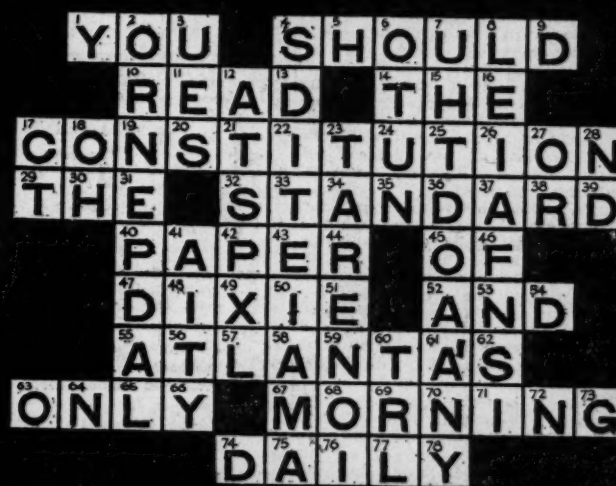

Mr. Eason said that other observers are needed in Gainesville, Athens, Macon and Columbus, Ga., and Anniston, Ala. ## in CASH PRIZES for the best answers to the LUCKY STAR game

1st PRIZE
$1,500 in

2ND PRIZE
$750 IN CASH
3RD PRIZE $300 IN CASH

How many different English Words can you spell with the letters in this Lucky Star?

Don't skip or jump any spaces, just move one space at a time, from any letter to any adjacent or touching letters in any direction. Simple, isn't it?

Easy---Simple--- Enjoyable. None of the tedious labor
of other contests.

You don't even need a dictionary. Send in the Coupon and we will furnish you FREE with one copy of the Lucky Star word list. This list contains all the words to be formed from the star. Words not in the list will not count.

You have never tackled any puzzle or game that will intrigue and fascinate you as this one will, and look at the list of big cash prizes. First prize of $1,500! Just for playing a game.

Send in the coupon today for your free word list; get started; let the whole family join in the fun.

If you are prompt in sending in the coupon it may mean that you will be the winner of a brand-new Chevrolet De Luxe Sedan in addition to the $1,500 in cash.

Read These Simple Instructions

Form as many words as possible from the letters in the star. Start with any letter and move one square at a time, as many times as desired, to any adjacent or contiguous letters in ANY DIRECTION; that is, upward, downward, sideways, and, or, diagonally. (A letter is adjacent or contiguous to another when the spaces occupied touch each other either on the sides or at the corners. S-32 is adjacent or contiguous to S-20, T-21, I-22, T-33, E-43, F-42, and A-41. However, it is not adjacent to E-31, because it is separated from the latter by a blank space.) Do not skip or jump any letters or spaces. For example, starting in with S-32, we can form the following simple words and many others:

- (a) S-32, T-21, A-12, T-21, E-11 spells STATE
- (b) S-32, I-22, T-21, E-11 spells SITE
- (c) S-32, T-33, E-43, E-51, R-44 spells STEER

As you will observe in example (a) above, the same letter may be used more than once in a word, but do not double any letter. In example (c) above, we have used two E's, E-43 and E-51, to make the word STEER, because at this place in the star we have two adjacent squares, each containing the letter E. But we cannot start with S-32 and make the word STEEP by doubling up E-43, thereby using the same space twice in succession in the same word. When you have formed all the words you can, starting with any given letter in the star, then start with another letter, and so forth, and you will be surprised how easy it is, and what fun!

WRIT HALTS EXECUTION OF JAMES T. BARBEE

Alleged Slayer of Son-in-Law Gets New Stay by Action of Court.

HAWKINSVILLE, Ga., Oct. 6.—(P)—A writ of supersedeas, granted by Judge Eschel Graham in Pulaski superior court, has automatically stayed the execution of James T. Barbee, 45, who had been sentenced to die in the electric chair at the state prison in Milledgeville this Friday.

Barbee had been convicted of slaying his son-in-law of one week, Delmar Cannon, of Macon, on March 3, last year. The case was carried to the supreme court of Georgia, conviction being affirmed, and he had been sentenced by Judge Graham.

Howard Coates and John Blount, lawyers for Barbee, appeared here today before Judge Graham and filed an extraordinary motion for new trial, claiming they had found new discovered evidence. The petition charged that this new evidence involved an alleged conspiracy on the part of the dead man's wife, Maude Barbee Cannon, and her mother, the wife of the Pure Oil Company, and that they were active in the prosecution of the condemned man. Solicitor M. H. Boyer opposed the writ.

Judge Graham denied the extraordinary motion, but he did grant the writ of supersedeas to give the lawyers opportunity to carry the case to the supreme court again.

'NEAR-BEER' BILL WINS IN ALABAMA

Miller Vetoes Measure
But Is Quickly Overridden by Both Houses.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 6.—(AP)—The Alabama legislature today repealed the 17-year-old statute prohibiting the sale or possession of any beverage that "looks like, smells like or tastes like" beer.

The sale of near-beer, prohibited under the old statute, became legal this afternoon when the senate followed the house in passing the measure over the veto of Governor B. M. Miller.

The vote in the house, taken within 10 minutes after the executive veto message was read, was 64 to 30, and in the senate 21 to 10.

Terminating the bill "an entering wedge" on the state's dry laws, the governor said his approval "would have a strong tendency to encourage the violation of the prohibition statutes and render their enforcement practically impossible as to beer."

Citing the act of 1915, which the measure known as the "Edgar near-beer bill" would repeal, the governor said: "We have had no beer problem in Alabama. This bill may bring beer troubles and beer problems."

"It is true that an enabling act will provide revenue for schools, near-beer is permitted to be sold. There are many other ways by which this revenue can be raised by levies on property escaping taxation. This bill drives an entering wedge into our prohibition statutes with destructive force which, in my opinion, should not be permitted."

Representative Massey Edgar, of Chatham, author of the bill, moved to pass it over the governor's veto, and during the brief debate, Representative Carmichael, of Colbert, interjected: "We have a bill taxing malt extract advocated by the governor. I wonder what he thinks that stuff is made of?"

Representative Edgar made two previous attempts for repeal of the statute prohibiting near-beer in the 1931 regular session, the first being smothered in a house committee, and the second, carrying a referendum clause after passing the house, was defeated in the senate temperance committee.

Bitter debate marked the passage of the bill through the senate last Friday, with Representative J. Miller Bonner, of Camden, leading the fight on the measure, and warning senators "if you vote for this bill you will be classed as a 'wet' in the next session."

Companion bills now before the senate committee on finance and taxation provide for levying a privilege tax of $100 annually on wholesale distributors of near-beer and $10 annually for retailers, with a tax of 3 cents a pint levied on retail sales.

McWhorter is opposed by S. Morton Turner, of Brooks county, who has been in either the house or the senate for the past two years.

Eckford "practically clinched" the race for speaker pro tem, at Macon, Luther Still, his Fulton colleague, said Friday. Still, the only four-term member who will be in the 1933 house, had charge of the Eckford headquarters in Macon during the convention.

"I am satisfied," Still said, "that Eckford has the speaker pro tem's place in the bag. I talked with dozens of old members who have pledged him their support and I was gratified at the number of young men who assured me of their support. I am confident we have won."

AD FOR NOBLEMAN DELUGES OFFICE OF NIGHT CLUB

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Will Oakland wanted "a genuine nobleman, whose title would be absolutely authentic, understood, and who absolutely must look suave," to serve as host and secretary at his night club.

So he put an ad in the paper: "Wanted—One bona fide nobleman, with credentials."

He received so many replies he had to weed out 100 for a final elimination test today. At intervals of five minutes they trooped into his club for interviews throughout the day.

The first on hand was Lord George Dimitri Leslie, who described himself as a descendant of Mary Stuart and "possessor of a congenial personality."

Count Nicholas George De Rinch could play a musical instrument, or sing "maybe, if I had a few drinks."

Baron A. Othen Von Gundlach Da Kallenaggen, from the Bronx, brought an Almanach De Gotha to prove his direct descent from Louis XIV.

All of them were eager to work for $40 a week. Oakland was so overwhelmed he had made no selection tonight.

FOR 1932 STUDIED

The 1932 yield below the commissioner's estimate.

McDonald and Talmadge were also in agreement that the present price, owing to the small crop, would bring the south many millions of dollars less than the price the 1931 crop brought and that whatever is done in the cotton situation should be uniform in all the states.

"Cotton is the barometer of trade," Count Nicholas George De Rinch said.

Commissioner McDonald said, "and cotton goes out into the channels of trade and brings back to America more gold than any of her exports. During the month of August, when cotton had advanced three cents a pound, there was every evidence that cotton is the one commodity that can and will take the lead in restoring prosperity to agriculture, industry, transportation and the employment of millions of citizens who are today unemployed and without hope."

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Senator Huey P. Long could not be reached for a statement this afternoon on the proposal of Agricultural Commissioners McDonald, of Texas, and Talmadge, of Georgia, that he take the lead in calling a cotton states' conference to plan uniform action for aiding cotton prices.

Aide to the senator, however, said the matter had been brought to his attention.

Says Expectant Mothers May Smoke Without Harm

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 6.—(UP)—There is no need for expectant mothers to refrain from smoking cigarettes, Dr. Joseph L. Baer, associate professor of obstetrics at Rush Medical College, Chicago, said today.

"Any woman expecting a child can smoke six or eight cigarettes a day without harm," the physician said in an address before the Kansas City Clinical Society.

"If the smoke in excess of that, however, the nicotine would be absorbed by the child."

Dr. Baer also said business life in no way impairs a woman's ability to bear children.

Commissioner McDonald said, "and cotton goes out into the channels of trade and brings back to America more gold than any of her exports. During the month of August, when cotton had advanced three cents a pound, there was every evidence that cotton is the one commodity that can and will take the lead in restoring prosperity to agriculture, industry, transportation and the employment of millions of citizens who are today unemployed and without hope."

Ritchie and Wilbur Will Debate Oct. 17

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 6.—(AP)—A debate on the election issues and the merits of the democratic and republican platforms between Governor Albert O. Ritchie, of Maryland, and Ray Lyman Wilbur, secretary of the interior, at the Northwestern University in Chicago on October 17, was announced tonight at the governor's office.

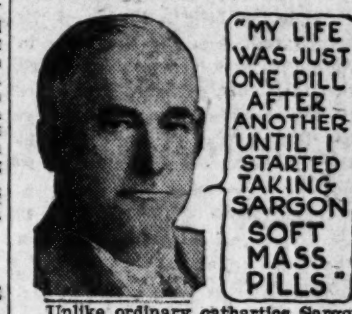

Governor Ritchie said he agreed to present the democratic views at the personal invitation of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, the party's presidential nominee, following a long distance telephone call to Albany, N. Y., from Melvin A. Taylor, at Chicago, is arranging the details.

The debate at the Northwestern University is a regular event every four years.

Gloria Swanson Loses Judgment for $7,340

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Judgment for $7,340 was ordered against Gloria Swanson, film actress, today when she failed to appear in court to answer the suit of W. Jay Saylor, Ltd. The suit was on a note given by the actress in connection with antique furnishings for her Beverly Hills home. Attorneys said Miss Swanson and her husband, Michael Farmer, were in London.

TO HOSPITAL WARD

Slayer, in Hysterical Condition, Waives Preliminary Hearing.

Bodily supported by two policemen, William H. Joyner, 56-year-old jobless butcher who Wednesday afternoon used a crowbar to batter to death Mrs. Etta L. McAfee, 65-year-old boarder in his home, was removed to the hospital ward of Fulton county jail Thursday afternoon after waiving preliminary hearing in police court.

Dazed and apparently still unable to speak intelligently in answer to questions, Joyner was said to be in such a condition of repressed hysteria that he was unable to walk alone. He was represented at the arraignment by Len B. Guillebeau, Atlanta attorney, who has known him for years.

A Fulton county jail officer was booked on a charge of murder. Previously he had been docketed at police headquarters on a charge of "suspicion of murder."

"If the grand jury sees fit to indict this man on a charge of murder," Guillebeau said, "I will immediately file a special plea of insanity and make every legal effort to have him adjudged insane."

Since his incarceration late Wednesday afternoon, Joyner is reported to have refused to partake of food.

A coroner's inquest into the tragedy will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, it was announced Thursday.

Meanwhile Coroner Paul E. Donohoe had granted permission for removal of the body of Mrs. McAfee to Birmingham, where funeral arrangements will be made. The body was taken to the Alabama city Thursday night.

OF DEATH THREAT

planks and leather bands, and had been recaptured and placed in the sweatbox. Drew said he heard Higginbotham say to Courson:

"I would have shot him in the woods but John Matthews" (state witness in the truck driver) "wouldn't let me."

Maillefer had dashed through nearby woods for his freedom after escaping the barrel.

Dies in Stocks.

James H. Travis, doing 12 years for robbery from Dade county, told substantially the same story as did Roberts and Drew, pointing at the defendants as he described Maillefer's punishment.

He said a convict asked Maillefer how he felt after he had been put in the box with a chain around his neck.

"His tongue was sort of sticking through his teeth and he replied, 'I don't believe I can stand this all night.'"

Maillefer died that night in the box.

Mrs. Julia Maillefer, mother of the youth, sat in the courtroom and wept silently as the barrel, the chain and the wooden stocks were placed in exhibit and the two convicts demonstrated how Maillefer had been confined.

When they put Maillefer in the box, Drew said, he asked for a drink of water. A convict gave it to him. Then said Drew, Higginbotham asserted:

"That chain ain't tight enough. He still can drink water."

The convicts went to supper in the mess hall, the witness said, and when they came out a trusty looked in the box and Maillefer was dead.

"It's Done."

Roberts said he heard the trusty call Courson and say:

"Captain—it's done."

Before leaving the box, after placing Maillefer in it, Drew said, Courson called other convicts around, told them to look at the chained man, and said:

"Let that be a lesson to all of you."

The captain also told Maillefer at that time, "if he heard anything out of him that night he would come back and chain his arms to the walls," said Drew.

Drew described the events leading up to the death of Maillefer. On June 1, he said, Maillefer went out to work along with the rest. He complained of feeling ill. A guard told him to sit down by the roadside. Later said Drew, the youth was taken to the camp.

"That night we noticed Jersey was not in his bed," continued Drew. "The convicts called Maillefer 'Jersey' because he was from New Jersey."

The next morning Captain Courson had taken Jersey out of the box and put that barrel on him, said Drew, indicating the object on the courtroom floor.

"Jersey could sit on a 'U'-shaped pipe in the prison yard by stretching his neck."

With Barrel On.

"That night he was placed in the sweat box with the barrel still on him."

The next day Maillefer escaped by gnawing out of the barrel.

When the prisoner was brought back to the camp on a truck and attempted to get out, his knees gave way under him, Roberts testified. "He tried to walk, but he couldn't."

"He didn't have any clothes on, but he had a blanket thrown over his shoulders."

"Then they put him in the sweat box. I watched them nail the stocks over his feet."

"I went to look. I spoke to Jersey, but I didn't get any reply. I saw the chain around Jersey's neck was fastened to the refter."

Roberts said he and several other prisoners worked with Maillefer about 20 minutes in a vain attempt to revive him.

men, and they apparently burned to death from flames which spread. Passing motorists found their bodies burned beyond recognition, shortly after daylight. The two men were identified as Gus Morrow, 32, and Jack DeVare, negro helper, both of Chattanooga.

Davidson, who lived at 31 The Prado, N. E., was campaign manager for J. Oscar Wall, candidate for commissioner of agriculture in the recent democratic state primary. He and Metts were on their way back to Atlanta from Macon, where they had attended the democratic state convention.

During the recent gubernatorial campaign, Davidson became a central figure in charges aimed against former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick and John N. Holler, candidates, when he alleged that Hardwick had attempted to secure highway paving material contracts for the Kentucky Rock Asphalt Company through an agreement with Holler. Although both candidates denied such an agreement, Davidson, as former official of the company, circulated what purported to be facsimile copies of letters indicating the alleged arrangement.

Blinded by Light.

Metts said he had just driven from a filling station on the outskirts of Barnesville, and had turned into Atlanta street, which is one of the highway leading from that town, when the accident occurred. A southbound automobile, Metts said, blinded him with its lights, and, in swerving to avoid a collision, his car got beyond control and ran into the roadside ditch, coming to rest against a tree. Davidson was dead when medical aid reached him.

A native of Kentucky, Mr. Davidson had been a citizen of Georgia for the last 22 years. He was born in Louisville, Ky., August 31, 1877, and was educated at the Kentucky Military Institute and the University of Indiana.

Served in Boxer Uprising.

He served both in the Spanish-American war and the Boxer uprising in China, and upon his return to America entered newspaper work in New York. During the war, Davidson, that city he assisted in the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, having organized the first contingent of New York new scouts as Boy Scouts.

SAMUEL SR. AND JR.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—(P)—Insull, former Chicago utilities magnate, under indictment in Cook county, and his son, Samuel Jr., for the second day remained out to callers today at the hotel where they have been staying.

There was no indication where they were. The hotel management said Mrs. Insull Sr. remained in the apartment with a maid and with the entire family's luggage.

The elder Insull has not been sought by any official, his callers being for the most part newspapermen, who sought his comment on his indictment.

This evening the United States embassy in Paris received a request that Mr. Insull be arrested. The usual procedure in such cases is to deliver the request to the French foreign office, which then orders that the arrest be effected.

ILLINOIS DEMANDS RETURN OF INSULLS

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—(P)—The state of Illinois today formally requested federal authorities at Washington to seek the extradition of Samuel Insull from Paris and of his brother, Martin Jr., from Orillia, Ont., and the Cook county grand jury turned its attention toward raising funds for extradition proceedings.

Emmett Wheeler, president of the county board, and Maurice Kavanaugh, chairman of the finance committee, agreed to appear before the grand jury tomorrow morning.

The finance committee several days ago refused State's Attorney John A. Swanson's plea for a $50,000 appropriation for investigating the voluminous records of the wrecked investment and holding companies of the once golden Insull utility and financial empire. It also refused his plea for $10,000 to finance extradition proceedings.

The grand jury voted the indictments against the Insulls and perhaps it will be interested in procuring the funds. Swanson was heard to tell Wheeler yesterday when he made another plea for funds and was refused.

The request for the brothers' extradition from foreign lands, whether they hurried after the collapse of their enterprises had started last spring, was made by Acting Governor Fred E. Sterling in a telegram to Secretary of State Stimson. Sterling quoted Swanson as declaring:

"I assure you the people of Cook county never will permit two men who are charged with having swindled thousands of persons out of millions of dollars to escape for lack of funds to pay the costs of extradition proceedings."

In an effort to procure further evidence against the Insulls, particularly to determine whether state "blue sky" laws, governing the sale of securities, or the postal laws were broken, Swanson tonight ordered his entire staff of more than 100 assistants to work overtime questioning buyers of Insull securities. Each purchaser was to be asked to fill out a questionnaire, telling when, why and how he made his purchases and whether any false claims were made by those who sold the securities.

moving to north Georgia, where he had been editor of papers at Clarksville, Dalton and Helen.

At the outbreak of the World War he volunteered for military service but was rejected on account of his health. He then became one of the first four volunteers from Georgia in overseas Y. M. C. A. work, having accompanied Dean Thomas H. Johnson, of St. Philip's cathedral, to France. His previous military experience, however, caused him to be commandeered into active military duty as the war progressed, and he served 10 months as railway transportation officer with rank of captain.

Represents Kentucky Firm.

Medical authorities are enthusiastic over the discovery that copper possesses astonishing power to increase the vital, strength-giving red corpuscles of the blood. In scientific combination with yeast vitamins and iron it furnishes a new and wonderful treatment for nervous and physical exhaustion and anemic conditions of the blood and tissues. The new treatment, Thor's Vitamin Compound of yeast, iron and copper, often accomplishes beneficial results in a few days that formerly required weeks of old-time methods.

Thor's Vitamin Compound promotes an increase in the vital, disease-resisting red corpuscles of the blood, tones and strengthens the intestinal tract, and enables the system to throw off accumulated impurities that cause a weak, tired-out, nervous condition. Next, it strengthens digestion and restores the appetite for wholesome, nourishing food that builds firm flesh and tissues. Indigestion, auto-intoxication, constipation and sleeplessness soon disappear, and the nerves become stronger. Thin, undernourished people usually show a gratifying gain in weight, with a marked increase in health, strength and energy.

Tennessee Refuses To Quit Penitentiary

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—(P)—They can't get Dave Stewart to quit the state penitentiary.

Governor Harry H. Horton pardoned him more than a month ago, but he refuses to leave. It's all very baffling to Parole Officer Ben Thompson. Thompson said today that Stewart, who is about 55 years old, "wants to leave but he won't go until he can make a connection somewhere, and I don't know what he can do unless the pardon is revoked."

Stewart was convicted at Clarksville April 27, 1931, on three forgery charges and was sentenced to serve three concurrent three-year terms. Last July the prosecuting attorney recommended a pardon, saying he believed the offense were committed "through stress of circumstances" and that Stewart had been punished sufficiently.

There was a general discussion of a proposal to consolidate X-ray services of the Grady hospital and the Steiner, but no formal action was taken.

For many weeks a heated word battle between the Steiner and members of the medical society and finally the society called on its members to resign their posts as members of the visiting staff unless the practice of accepting pay and part-pay patients were discontinued. Action of the board Thursday fails to give effect to the resignation of the Steiner, but was said to be a compromise acceptable to both.

The Wright Company, Inc., hotel and restaurant supply wholesalers, were named as defendants in an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed in federal district court Thursday by three creditors who allege debts owed them of $34,002.70. A petition for receiver also was filed, but has not been acted upon.

United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith was in receipt of a large number of telegrams, telephone calls and personal visits from hundreds of his friends Thursday on his seventieth birthday. He was presented with a letter of congratulations signed by his co-workers in the federal building and with a large bouquet of flowers.

W. A. Crawford Thursday was awarded $900 damages against the city of Atlanta for injuries he received when he fell through the sidewalk at the old city hall site. He claimed that he lost all sense of feeling as a result of the fall and this was demonstrated to a jury when physicians jabbed pins into his flesh and he failed to register pain.

Demurrers attacking indictments against six alleged communists on charges attempting to incite to insurrection were overruled Thursday in superior court by Judge E. E. Pomeroy. The demurrers were offered to a second set of indictments against the six, which were returned by grand jury on Thursday. The indictments were returned against and now are pending in the supreme court. Those awaiting trial include Anna Rudolph, Mary Dalton, M. H. Powers, Joe Henry Storey and Gilmer Brady.

Nurses of Piedmont hospital will be guests at the Second Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock Sunday and Sunday when Dr. Ryland Knight, the pastor, will preach the third of a series of sermons on "Principles of Conduct."

Mrs. Ruth Maguire, teacher of the T. E. L. class of the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school, will speak and John D. Hoffman will direct the music program.

Men's Bible class of Grank Park Baptist church will hold its regular monthly business meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the classroom when plans for "Home-coming Day" will be discussed.

Dramatic Club of Westminster Presbyterian church will present "Madame Mame," a three-act comedy, at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Bass Junior High school, as the second entertainment given by the "Boudelons" since their organization six months ago. Several men and young women will be in the cast of the comedy.

"Forty and Eight" members will hold their regular meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in Hall No. 2 of the Chamber of Commerce building when the election of officers for 1933 will be held.

Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. announced Thursday that he would call a special election in the third congressional district coincident with the general election November 8, to fill out the unexpired term of Congressman Charles E. Walker. Representative Crisp has announced his resignation.

Miss Hanna Honored On 84th Birthday In St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Oct. 6. Miss Elizabeth Hanna was given a delightful surprise party Monday afternoon by members of the Southern Women's Study Club and Dixie chapter, U. D. C., celebrating the eighty-fourth anniversary of her birthday. Miss Hanna is an honorary member of both organizations.

Miss Hanna, a native of New Orleans, is one of the most noted educators of the old south. In the early days of her career she taught in the school established by Mrs. Leonidas Polk, wife of the Episcopal bishop of Louisiana. Later, she went to Atlanta and established the Hanna school which includes among its graduates and pupils many distinguished women of Atlanta. For a number of years Miss Hanna was a contributor to The Atlanta Constitution and was also book reviewer for that paper.

One of her most notable accomplishments was the organization of the library movement for the purpose of placing literature, history and books of every kind pertaining to the southern cause and its people in foreign libraries to correct mistaken ideas that prevailed through biased history. The first library was placed in the Library of Parliament at Ottawa, Canada; another in the Sorbonne, at Paris, another in the famous library of Louvain, Belgium, where a handsome Confederate flag hangs at the request of the librarian. Another southern library is at Oxford, England.

A like library is being completed also at Gainesville, and a completed one has been placed in Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va., which enables that university to confer the degree of Ph. D., necessary for teachers of history. Miss Hanna is an ardent southerner and is well known and beloved throughout the south.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

My family thinks my place is at the kitchen sink. It's all right but there are other pieces of furniture in a home. If I ask a friend to call he is entertained by my father in his undershirt and his bathrobe. When I write a letter I am reminded that stamps are now selling for three cents apiece. Every effort I make to get away from this home is thwarted nor do they want to get away from me. I want to get away from them. I want no old bachelor to buy meals or my tickets to the shows. I want to get out into the world and feel the hopes and disappointments that other people feel. I want to be with young folks of my own age. I am like a rubber ball; I will not sink, and I mean to have life and love some day. Maybe you know how I can go about it.

Answer:

With that spirit it ought not to be hard for you to get out and sample the pleasures you dream of. But remember every day you delay it will be that much harder to make the break. If you haven't any cash and haven't any job in prospect, perhaps you have relatives or friends that will take you in and keep you until you can locate work. Only this I know, that an indomitable will to accomplish something and a burning desire to go somewhere will get you what you want and take you where you want to go. No set of earthly circumstances can hold enthralled a nature like yours. The restlessness that you feel is part and parcel of youth. You should harness it and use it, for, like all things things that are part and parcel of youth, it will diminish as the years go by.

Gleaned From the Note Book of Women's Division of Atlanta Community Chest

The interrelationship of the Community Chest agencies as well as the great value of the service of the social workers was well illustrated in an account of the 54 children who, because of insufficient funds, were turned away from the Child Welfare Association during September. The contacts necessary to dispose of these cases temporarily included: Sheltering Arms, Salvation Army, Family Welfare Society, police matron, social worker at Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills, Hillside Cottages, Atlanta Child's Home, Calhoun school, Community Employment Shop, Decatur Red Cross, juvenile court and Emergency relief, as well as numerous relatives.

Without going into details of the 54 heart-breaking stories, reading between the lines of the above list, the sympathetic person may well imagine the broken homes, the crime, the grief which the children have already experienced, in addition to the pain of hunger and cold.

Sharing with the Community Chest may provide homes for these children so that they, too, may grow up to share with their fellowmen. The women's division, headed by Mrs. Preston Arkwright, goes into immediate action to raise funds to meet the aforementioned emergency. The Community Chest drive begins on October 24, and there are 7,000 Atlanta families in dire distress and are awaiting assistance through this medium.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT BY ELY CULBERTSON, World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

Trusting Partner

Opening psychic bids have a certain vogue with some very strong players. They are, however, extremely dangerous attacking measures, particularly when partner rather than opponents happens to hold the balance of strength in the hands. The psychic bidder then finds it extremely difficult to convey to partner a correct picture of his holdings, and frequently is in doubt as to the course he should pursue at any pivotal point in the bidding.

However, sometimes even a game can be built upon an entirely psychic foundation, as, for instance, the following, which was played recently in a duplicate game in New York city. The North player at one table being Mr. Edward Hynes Jr., and his partner, who read the only play as a possible finesse against the Queen, did not play the Ace. The trick was won with the King, and the remaining spade and diamond checks. At the end, East was in a difficult situation, and could not retain a guard to the club Queen and also the heart Ace. Eventually the heart Ace was discarded, and the last tricks were taken with the heart Queen and the club Ace.

North, after his psychic opening bid, had risen to brilliant heights by and led a low diamond to the Ten in Dummy, laying the foundation for the eventual end-play. South now led the Knave of hearts from Dummy, and East, who read the only play as a possible finesse against the Queen, did not play the Ace. The trick was won with the King, and the remaining spade and diamond checks. At the end, East was in a difficult situation, and could not retain a guard to the club Queen and also the heart Ace. Eventually the heart Ace was discarded, and the last tricks were taken with the heart Queen and the club Ace.

North-Dealer.
East-West vulnerable.

North	East	South	West
1♠(1)	1♥	Double(2)	Pass
2♠(3)	2♥	2NT(4)	Pass
3NT(5)	Pass	Pass	Pass

(1) A purely psychic Opening, hoping to confuse the opponents, who, he feared, might hold the preponderance of strength.

(2) At this time South did not know that his partner's bid was psychic, although, with 41-2 honor-tricks and a vulnerable Overall of the Opening bid, he had reason to be suspicious of his partner's holding.

(3) This disclosed the psychic. If North prefers to play for a part-score in clubs rather than attempt to defeat an opposing vulnerable bid, then his hand must be well-nigh trickless.

(4) This bid disclosed a very strong hand and a willingness to play for game if North held anything except a worthless hand.

(5) After all, North did hold an Ace

"Her Nerves are Ragged . . . She Can't Face Another Day of Work"

"I can't go through another day . . . oh, what is the matter? What shall I do?" Did you ever feel this way yourself?

Nearly Nervous Prostration

DO you know her . . . this poor woman who wakes up at tired as she went to bed?

Her head is still aching . . . her nerves are ragged . . . she's on the verge of tears as she faces another day of work.

"I can't go through it again . . . I can't. Oh, what is the matter? What shall I do?" she cries.

How many young women are fast approaching a nervous breakdown because they let suffering due to female weakness rob them of their strength and health.

In offices or in their homes, they drive themselves, working "on their nerve." Hoping against hope that tomorrow they will feel better . . . but instead they become more and more prostrated.

It is a double tragedy because it is so unnecessary.

Nature did not mean women to suffer so cruelly. If they would only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound! It has befriended women against their "peculiar" troubles for over 50 years.

It brings soothing, comforting relief . . . gently corrects through its strengthening tonic action the cause of the headaches and backaches that wear you out. Drives away the awful lassitude that kills ambition and makes life a burden.

This simple, safe remedy has justly earned its place in the Family Medicine Cabinet.

Won't you listen to the testimony of thousands of women who use it? Give it at least one chance to help you. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Or, try it in the new, convenient tablet form.

The Early Crash.

Football hasn't wasted much time in warming up this season. Back

In the past, October 8 was one of the easy-going, loosening up dates, with little at stake for any of the better-known teams.

In looking over tomorrow's schedule I find there are at least 20 contests on the map between high-class rivals or traditional opponents.

In this respect the Western conference leads them all. Look over this early October list—just as the leaves have started to turn brown or gold:

Michigan vs. Northwestern.

Minnesota vs. Purdue.

Wisconsin vs. Iowa.

Ohio State vs. Indiana.

Chicago vs. Yale.

Illinois faces Bradley, but nine of the other teams are involved in scrimmages, which might easily tell one of the decisive stories of the year.

Chicago doesn't play a conference game, but the Maroon's showing against Yale will be an important item.

Michigan, Northwestern, Minnesota

and Purdue are four of the five picked to have a strong championship chance.

Yet two of them must lose important ground before the campaign has had 10 days to run.

Other Sections.

The same situation exists, to a slightly lesser degree, all around the country.

In the south and southwest Tulane meets Georgia, Georgia Tech faces Kentucky, Auburn tackles

Duke, Missouri meets Texas, and Tennessee looks up with North Carolina.

In the far west both Stanford and California have their share of trouble.

Stanford has Santa Clara to beat back and California shoots at a strong

St. Mary's team where Slip Madigan has even better stuff than he carried a year ago.

Then in the east there is

Princeton after Columbia—the tiger stalking the lion. Dartmouth gets a hard test from

Lafayette. Fordham and Bucknell should put on one of their old-fashioned wars, as Yale

waits for Chicago.

All in all this will be one of the big spots of the season—a Saturday afternoon loaded with activity along more than 20 important fronts.

Leonard's Comeback.

Benny Leonard is offering an interesting experiment tonight against

Jimmy McLarnin, whatever happens.

It will be interesting to see how his old co-ordination of mind and muscle will look after the rest and rust of many years. It will be a fair test because Leonard always took good care of himself, even when he had definitely decided to retire. He had a good start along the road of right living, but that is only part of the story—then you have taken a five-year vacation and the calendar registers in the thirties.

Leonard's best chance will be that maybe McLarnin is not so warm and woolly in the other corner. But apart from that, Leonard will be under much more pressure than he has known in several years—since he hung up the leather in better financial days. 1932, by the North American

Rules Secretary*Discusses Tackle*And Flying Block

Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of four explanatory articles on the 1932 football rules, written especially for The Associated Press.

By William S. Langford,

Secretary, National Football Rules

Committee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Prohibition against the use of the flying tackle and the flying block was adopted for the protection of the tackler and blocker rather than of the opponents whom they were trying to bring down.

The new rule states: "It is illegal to use a flying tackle in which a player dives or throws his body through the air at the ball-carrier.

It is legal for the tackler to leave his feet at the instant he makes contact with the ball-carrier."

The provisions with respect to blocking are similar.

If a player makes a flying block or a flying tackle, even though he fails to make contact with the opponent, his team is penalized five yards from the spot of the foul, except in case the flying block or tackle is used against a player who is making contact with the ball-carrier.

This is the only instance in the rules where a penalty is imposed to prevent a player from doing injury to himself.

The only change in the rule governing the use of hands and arms by players on defense is that which forbids restricts these players from striking above the shoulders with the palms of the hands.

Defensive players are permitted to use the palms of their hands above the shoulders of opponents only to push them out of the way in order to get at the ball or the player carrying it or to ward off interferers who are trying to block them.

WALLACE WADE

PLANS SURPRISE

FOR PLAINSMEN

Auburn Working Behind

Locked Gates for Saturday's Game.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 6.—While the stress in the Duke camp this week is on the defensive with particular attention to tackling, Coach Wallace

Wade is taking enough time to brew

a little secret poison for use against the powerful Auburn Plainsmen in Birmingham Saturday.

The ingredients of the Duke men-tor's concoctions naturally are being kept under a veil but the fact that such doings are going on in the Duke camp, together with the report that

Auburn is practicing behind locked gates, is expected to put much of the "unexpected" into their tilt Saturday.

It is no secret, however, that many high-powered backs will be on parade.

Auburn will offer seven great ball-carriers and, while Duke will depend more on its defensive, some backs who can lug the leather will be presented during the afternoon.

To vie for honors with Captain Jim

Hitchcock, Allen Rogers, Casey Kim-

brell, Firpo Phipps, Ripper Williams,

Sterling Dupree and Tom Shackelford.

Duke will show John Brownlee, Nick

Laney, Captain Lowell Mason, Bob

Coey, Ken Abbott and Al Keller.

It should be interesting to watch

the duel of John Brownlee, of Duke, and Kimbrell and Dupree, of Auburn.

All three are track men and all three can trip the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds, and they are undoubtedly three of the fastest backs in the country.

As their side-stepping, hip-shifting triple-threat, Duke will offer Nick

Laney, the Charlotte Cyclone, and under the same description is Captain

Hitchcock, of Auburn, who is compared by a Duke coach and a former mentor at Illinois, Carl Voyles, to Red Grange, the Galloping Ghost of Illinois.

The Blue Devils will take a short workout this afternoon and leave tomorrow night, arriving in Birmingham at 11:55 a. m. Friday.

Lawson Shifted*To Auburn Varsity.

AUBURN, Ala., Oct. 6.—Dan Lawson, a sophomore right tackle from Birmingham, was the only newcomer in Auburn's first line as the Tigers engaged in rough work in preparation for their outstanding game with Wallace Wade's Duke Blue Devils in Birmingham Saturday. The Auburn-Duke battle stands out as a grudge "natural" and is expected to be witnessed by close to 15,000. The Tigers and

Blue Devils will kick off at Legion field at 2 p. m.

Two scrimmages were in session at the same time as the Bengals worked hard in a ready drizzle for Wade's machine. The scrimmage was a rough providing the opposition and using Duke plays, lasted over an hour.

At one end of the field Coach

Wynne was supervising the offensive scrimmage for his charges against the plebes. At the other end of Drake

field, Coaches Roger Kiley and Sam

McCallister were in charge of a defensive practice for the varsity. The varsity teams alternated the last half of the practice.

Although a 100-pounder, performed with the regulars on both the offense and defense. He is a lad with lots of promise and is slated to play be-

TARZAN THE UNTAMED No. 95

With clinched fists Olga tried to protect herself and drive Usanga away. And so the huge native struggled to capture the girl, the warrior he had kicked out of the hut made his staggering way to the hut occupied by Naratu.

Just as Usanga roughly seized Olga again, there burst into the hut a raging demon of jealousy: Naratu had come. Kicking, scratching, biting and striking, he routed the terrified Usanga in short order. She was bent on vengeance.

Naratu wanted only to inflict punishment upon her unfaithful lord and master. She quite forgot the object of his infatuation. Olga heard her screaming down the village street, hot on Usanga's heels. But she knew that tomorrow would be different.

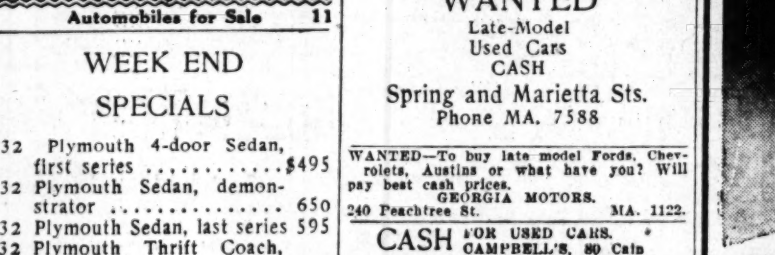

Naratu would come back and take out on Olga the full measure of her jealous hatred. They had gone but a few minutes when the warrior guard returned. "Call out now for Usanga," he sneered. "Only he can halt me and he will not return—tonight."

POMEROY QUASHES 18 CARSON BILLS

Boykin Requests Not Prose in Investment Brokers' Hearing.

Eighteen indictments against Sturms W. Carson, former Atlanta investment banker, who recently was pardoned by former Governor Hardman were not pressed Thursday before Judge E. E. Pomerooy in superior court at the request of the solicitor-general.

Carson and his son, W. Clifton Carson, were jointly indicted in a number of cases charging embezzlement and larceny after trust, it being alleged that through the handling of investments they had defrauded many Atlantans. On November 26, 1929, both entered pleas of guilty to two charges of larceny after trust and Sturms Carson received a sentence of from four to five years and his son was given two to four years. They served less than a year of their time and were pardoned by Governor Hardman.

The younger Carson was jointly named in most of the indictments which were not pressed against his father, but it was stated in the solicitor's office that these charges against the son were not pressed many months ago. The action of Thursday clears the slate against both men. Sixteen of the 18 indictments charge larceny after trust while the remaining two charged embezzlement. Solicitor-General John A. Boykin would make no statement as to why the cases were not pressed.

U. S. Interference Rapped by Banks

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6.—(P)—Argument against excessive legislative interference with the banking structure of the nation on the ground the system is capable of making necessary adjustments automatically, or voluntarily, was advanced today in a report to the American Bankers Association convention by its economic policy commission.

Reduction of the country's banks from 30,800 in 1921 to the present number of 19,500 was referred to as more beneficial than the result of legislation would have been.

The report argued against the destruction of the dual system of state and national banks under the proposed federal unification plan, claiming the dual system has virtues along the lines of maintaining local financial independence and credit sympathies free from the domination of over-centralized federal government, and that the dual system should be strengthened rather than destroyed.
